

PEOPLE CAN SEE

No Reason For Voting Against Democratic Nominees.

They Are the Men Who Have Paid Off Washington County's Indebtedness.

NO ROOM FOR COMPLAINT.

Below we print the name and address of each member of the Democratic County Campaign Committee. A meeting of the committee will be held in Springfield next Saturday afternoon. Reports from every section of the county are to the effect that the party is in excellent shape, and while there is a strong probability that the Republicans will refuse to nominate candidates, the indications point to a complete Democratic vote. The taxpayers can see no reason for a change of officials just at this time, as the men who are now the Democratic nominees for county offices are the same men who have brought the county out of debt, and reduced the taxation. The financial condition of Washington county could hardly be better, and when the voter—the taxpayer—votes the matter sober thought he will realize that in casting a vote against the men who have brought about this state of affairs, he will be doing that which will be against his own interest.

The following compose the campaign committee:

Joe Connor, Fredericktown.
W. T. Mitchell, Antioch.
Ed Masters, Mackville, R. F. D. No. 1.
Richard Lahm, Mackville.
C. F. Bosley, Lebanon, R. F. D. No. 3.
B. B. Leachman, Springfield, R. F. D. No. 3.

A. C. Kimball, J. W. Tucker, L. A. Burns, Springfield.
J. R. Gore, chairman; T. Scott Mayes, treasurer; J. W. Bush, secretary.

Stroke of Paralysis.

Marion Falcon: Bishop John Lancaster Spalding, who has been with his sister, Mrs. Kate Spalding, for the past two months, received a slight stroke of paralysis Monday afternoon, and his physicians and his family were hurriedly summoned to his bedside. His attendants believing that he was dying, Son Dr. R. C. McChord arrived, and after skillful medical aid the Bishop rallied and regained consciousness. This being his third stroke and knowing his feeble condition, his relatives were greatly alarmed, and news went over the city that the Bishop was dying, which created considerable excitement. He is now very much improved, and no fears are entertained as to the outcome of his recent spell. Wednesday many telegrams were received from different parts of the country by the local press correspondents and the relatives inquiring about the Bishop's condition.

Lebanon Man's Terrible Deed.

Falcon: A telegram was received here just before noon Wednesday that Jack Thompson had shot and killed his wife and father-in-law at his home at Evergreen, Ala. The tragedy occurred about 6 o'clock, shortly after they had arisen, and no reason can be assigned other than it is the belief of his family and friends here that he committed the act in a fit of lunacy, he having recently showed signs of a deranged mind. Mr. Thompson is a son of Mr. J. J. Thompson, the well-known carpenter, and was born and reared here. About fifteen years ago he was married to Miss Belle Cooper, and during the past eight years has resided with his father-in-law at Evergreen, to which place he moved from Lebanon. He has a family of three children, and recently one of his boys was killed by falling from a tree.

Great loss of life and property was caused throughout Italy by earthquake shocks. William Colletto and his two children were suffocated in a New York tenement fire.

A Building Boom.

"That Springfield is just now enjoying a building boom is evident to anyone who takes a stroll over town. On Grundy avenue four new residences are in course of construction, one of which, that of Mr. W. F. Grigsby, has been completed, and is now occupied by Mr. Grigsby. Others who are building new residences on this street are Messrs. T. D. Tapp, Lefe Wells and W. D. McElroy. All these houses are being rapidly pushed to completion, and in all probability will be ready for occupancy by January 1. On Virginia avenue, Mr. O. F. Wharton is having erected a handsome two-story residence, which will be completed at an early date, and will add greatly to the new street. Several others have purchased lots on Virginia avenue, and will build in the early spring. Judge Thurman is having a handsome residence moved from his farm to Covington avenue. The house, which is a large one, will be divided and remodeled in a manner so as to make two houses, and will be rented. Mr. W. L. McDaniel has purchased a lot of Mr. E. S. Mayes Jr., on Main street, near the graded school building, and has begun making brick; preparatory to erecting a handsome dwelling on the site.

Church Members Fined.

Lebanon Enterprise: Judge Thomas heard the troubles of the warring factions in the African Baptist church last Saturday afternoon, and concluded an admonition to the belligerents that they must get along amicably in the future and stay out of court was sufficient for the case, so he fined the opposing leaders, Dave Scott and John Hughes, $10 each, and suspended the judgment pending their future good behavior.

SELLS BIRDS.

HAS A RICH REPAST IN A BIRD STORE.

A Big Python Craves Consternation Among Canyons in an Atlantic City Establishment.

Atlantic City: A python ten feet long caused much excitement in the store of a bird-fancier on Atlantic avenue, when it escaped from its cage and started to enjoy a rare dinner of imported canaries, rabbits, a squirrel and one prize Boston bull pup.

The snake had been recently released from South America and was to be shown in the store on the boardwalk. It made its escape when no one was in the store. Persons passing were attracted by the noise of a great commotion among the survivors, including several dogs, parrots and the like. The snake was observed through the window looking at the bird store. A young bird couple was enjoying its third canary, while the body of a rabbit, squeezed almost out of recognition, was lying in one corner of the cage. An employee of the store arrived as the snake was carrying on a flirtation with a pretty and much excited peacock. Seizing a bag and pushing forward the cage from which the snake had escaped, the young man finally succeeded in throwing the bag over the snake's head and twisting it around its neck. Then came a battle between man and reptile. The spectators offered odds of 5 to 1 on the snake, but after a long struggle it was forced into its cage.

Auction of Bridal Hooley. English, Ind.—The railway depot here was the scene of an auction out of the ordinary. A young bird couple had been put off a train for failing to pay their fare. They were well dressed and intelligent looking.

After a conference the young man took off a fancy vest and offered to sell it at auction. It did not bring much. The young woman then produced a pair of fine shoes and five pairs of silk stockings and offered them for sale. A crowd soon gathered and there was a good deal of rivalry to secure the shoes.

The couple finally secured enough money to get tickets to St. Louis. The young woman said she would sell every stitch of her clothing before she would beg.

The salt marsh mosquito at New Orleans is declared to be a more bothersome plague than the fever itself, aside from the fatality involved.

ANOTHER ROUTE FOR SPRINGFIELD.

When Established Over 400 People Will Be In Touch with It.

Col. H. G. Rising, special agent of the Rural Delivery Service, was here Friday, and he and Postmaster Waters over the proposed new route, which will probably be established out of Springfield. If this route is established it will necessitate a complete change in Route No. 2. Commencing at Springfield, Route No. 2 will follow the Bardstown pike to Fredericktown, thence to McIntire, thence into Springfield as now in operation. The proposed route, or No. 5, commencing at Springfield, will go by way of the county road to the old Elizabethtown road, to Mrs. W. F. Blandford's corner, thence by county road to a point in St. Rose and Lebanon pike to the old toll house, thence north by said pike to the Smith Mill pike, thence by said pike to Springfield.

If this route is established—and the indications are that it will be—it will put the southwestern part of the county under a complete system of rural free delivery. No. 2 will follow the Bard-town pike to the St. Rose and Loretto pike, thence with said pike to Cecilville, thence by the county road to a point on the Bardstown pike, near J. S. McIntire's place, thence with said pike to Clements' bridge, thence via Alms house to McIntire postoffice, thence by county road to turnpike near Illinois postoffice, thence by said pike south to Gashburg, thence by St. Rose and Loretto pike to schoolhouse, near Louis Salunary's; but No. 2 will remain in operation as it now exists until No. 5 is established, at which time the changes noted above will be made in No. 2.

We are informed that there are two gates on the proposed new route which must be removed or replaced with automatic gates. The Department will not consider the establishment of the new route until this obstacle is removed, and the Fiscal court should take steps at once to have this matter adjusted. When this obstruction is removed it is very likely that the route will be established.

CARDWELL.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Tatum and Mrs. M. A. Perkins visited at S. H. Gardner's Sunday.

Mr. N. B. Royalty was a visitor at W. H. Littler's Saturday.

S. H. Gardner has sold his store and property, consisting of twenty acres of land, to J. Moberly for $1,500 cash. Mr. Moberly has sent for his son, Erastus, who is in Illinois, to come and run the store. Possession December 1.

Mr. Cyrus Graham is in Lexington for a short visit to his daughters.

Miss Lillie Willham visited Miss Vanetta Brown, of Duncan, a part of last week.

Mr. Robert Noel, of Iowa, is at Mr. W. L. Graham's.

Miss Nancy Royalty, of Kirkwood, is visiting her cousin, Miss Heaster Newell, this week.

Mr. Charley Pinkston, while hauling tobacco Friday, touched his horse with the whip and caused him to break his leg above the hock.

Rev. Mason, who has been holding a meeting at Freedom for a week, was called to Rockbridge to preach the funeral of Mrs. Larken Dead last Saturday.

Mr. Thomas Moberly and family and E. G. Holliday and family visited Willam Moore and family Sunday.

Mr. Wesley Royalty and wife spent Saturday night at the home of Luddie Jenkins.

A large crowd was in attendance at the association at Glen's creek Thursday and Friday.

Mr. Will Moore entertained a number of his friends last Saturday night. A large crowd was present.

THREE JURORS CURED

Of Cholera Morbus With One Small Bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Mr. G. W. Fowler, of Hightower, Ala., relates an experience he had while serving on a petit jury in a murder case at Edwardsville, county seat of Cleburne county, Alabama. He says: "While there I ate some fresh meat and some soup and it gave me cholera morbus in a very severe form. I was never able to climb to court, and I was in the drug store for a certain cholera mixture, but the druggist sent me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy instead, saying that he had what I sent for, but that his medicine was so much better he would rather send it to me in the box I was in. I took one dose of it and was better in five minutes. The second dose cured me entirely. Two fellow jurors were afflicted in the same manner, and one small bottle cured the three of us." For sale by C. J. Haydon, druggist.

Mrs. Maggie Kohn committed suicide after brooding over her own infidelity.

The next reunion of the G. A. R. will be held in Minneapolis.

Just For Fun.

Last Saturday week a gang of young toughs came to town, filled themselves with whisky and left about dark, going out the Mackville pike. They indulged in all sorts of profanity and amused themselves by now and then taking a shot at nothing, just to remind the peaceful citizens along the way that they were very much alive. When the party reached Mr. C. L. Brady's place, about a mile from town, some one in the party slammed a large new white steel gate with sufficient force to break the lever, then went their way rejoicing. For this and similar acts of destruction and devilry there appears to be no redress unless the guilty ones could be identified and arrested. Mr. Brady says that if the party will only repair the damage done to the gate he could in a measure overlook the "fun" they enjoyed.

Death of Mrs. Raley.

Mrs. Florence Raley, of Louisville, who had been visiting at the home of Dr. Deboe, near town, died last Friday morning of septic poison and heart disease. Mrs. Raley formerly resided at Texas, this county, but moved to Louisville about ten years ago, where she had since resided. Deceased was about thirty-two years of age. She was a woman of pretty character, and has numbers of friends in Washington county who will be shocked to learn of her death. She leaves a husband and two little boys, who have the sympathy of all in the loss of wife and mother. Mrs. Raley was a member of the Christian alliance. Her remains were buried in Lebanon last Saturday afternoon.

IT WAS HIS DUTY.

A MAINE SHERIFF REPLEVINS A BEAR.

Thought It Rather an Unusual Piece of Professional Work to Be Asked of Him.

Bangor, Me.—Deputy Sheriff Mark Huson of Presque Isle had an unusual piece of professional work the other day. A man coming in from Portage lake early last spring caught a pair of young bear cubs, which he sold to William L. Fields, who lives on the north bank of the Aroostook river, about two miles above Washburn village. They soon became strongly attached to Mr. Fields.

One afternoon in June Mr. Fields left home, shutting the cubs in the house. They became restless, and the female succeeded in climbing through an open window. She saw a man at work on the opposite side of the river and swam across. The man saw the cub coming and caught her as she came from the water. The little animal appeared so friendly that the man started to his home in Mapleton, bearing the cub in his arms.

A week later he came to Presque Isle looking for Judge George H. Smith, whose reputation as a lover of pets is widely known. Unfortunately the judge was absent, and the man then tried to sell the cub to Charles F. Dagget, as an all around useful animal to protect his lawn from young baseball players and dogs. Mr. Dagget, however, declined.

In the meantime Mr. Fields had learned of the whereabouts of his little pet. As life had been made miserable for him because of the cries of the other cub, Mr. Fields sought out his pet, but the new owner would not consent even to show the animal. Then Mr. Fields hurried over to Carleton and got a writ of replevin. Coming back to Washburn he telegraphed to Huson to come to his assistance, telling him of his writ of replevin.

Huson was on hand at the appointed time, and together they went to the man's house, where Mr. Fields recovered his missing pet without a struggle. The sheriff thinks it is the only case record of replevin of a bear.

The Modern Novel.

Anthony Hope, in a recent speech in London, in comparing the classic with the modern novel, said that, looking at the models of the modern school of novels, what struck him most was the tendency toward more conscious philosophy, a greater effort to work philosophy into a story.

Cured of Lame Back After 15 Years of Suffering.

"I had been troubled with lame back for fifteen years, and I found a complete recovery in the use of Chamberlain's Pain Balm," says John G. Blaher, Gilliam, Ind. This liniment is also without an equal for sprains and bruises. It is for sale by C. J. Haydon, druggist. Subscribe for The Sun. $1.00 year.

LITTLE FOLKS

Will Have Fair Annually.

Their Meeting Last Saturday a Great Success.

RECEIPTS OVER EIGHTY DOLLARS.

The Children's Fair, given at the Fair Grounds at this place last Saturday, was a success in every particular. At least 1,000 people were in attendance, many of them being older people, who also seemed to enjoy the day as much as the little boys and girls, and we doubt very much whether the children of Springfield, and those of the country who attended, ever spent a day in which they found more real enjoyment.

The Children's Fair will now be a permanent organization, and the indications are that it will grow to be a "great big little fair." The gate receipts on last Saturday amounted to over $80, and after all expenses were paid, a balance of $60 was left in the treasury. This was placed in the bank, and will be used next year in making more complete arrangements. Mrs. C. C. McChord, who first conceived the idea of giving the children a fair, intended at first to have them meet in her yard, but, owing to the illness of a neighbor, she applied to the Fair Company for the grounds. The success of the meeting far exceeded the expectations of all, and it is due to this that a permanent organization was made.

Mrs. McChord informs The Sun that she has already commenced to plan for next year's fair, and that quite a number of new features will be introduced. Premiums will be offered next year for the best dressed doll and the best fancy work by little girls.

Following are the rings and the names of those to whom premiums were awarded:

- 1—Best cow, any age, Albert Kimball.
- 2—Best calf, under one year, Bob Parro.
- 3—Best colt, under one year, Albert Kimball.
- 4—Best saddle horse, Mr. McChord.
- 5—Best bicycle rider, Jimmie Cox.
- 6—Best boy rider, A. R. Shultz.
- 7—Best girl rider, Louise Haydon.
- 8—Best stick horse riders, Sarah Smock and VanArndale Noe.
- 9—Best turnout, Frank Peters.
- 10—Dog for harness, Stith Noe first, Grundy Mayes second.
- 11—Best roadster, A. R. Shultz.
- 12—Best decorated pony cart, Margaret McChord.
- 13—Best lady rider, Mrs. C. C. McChord.
- 14—Handsome colored baby, Myrtle Stark.
- 15—Best harness pony, A. R. Shultz.
- 16—Worst turnout, Russell and Carpenter.
- 17—Saddle pony, Joe Hundley.
- 18—Best race, Berry first, Bobbitt second.
- 19—Best double team, Charles Haydon.
- 20—Jugger—Misses Alice and Clay McElroy.
- 21—Jugger, Messrs. Lynn Bush and Will O'Nan, of Springfield, and Joe Hundley, of Lebanon.

The following are the officers of the association:

President—Downing Robertson.
Vice President—A. R. Shultz.
Secretary—Dudley Robertson.
Treasurer—Robert Mayes.
Directors—Iva Roberts, Booker Robertson, Ray Thurman, Robert Shultz, Charles Mayes, Mrs. C. C. McChord, Mrs. A. R. Shultz.

The Colonel's Waterloo.

Col. John M. Fuller, of Honey Grove, Texas, nearly met his Waterloo, from Liver and Kidney trouble. In a recent letter he says: "I was nearly dead, of these complaints, and although I tried my family doctor, he did me no good; so I got a 50-cent bottle of your Great Electric Bitters, which cured me. I consider it the best medicine I ever took, and thank God, who gave you the knowledge to make them." Sold and guaranteed to cure Dyspepsia, Biliousness and Kidney Diseases, by C. J. Haydon, druggist, at 50 cents a bottle.

M. Witte, the Russian peace envoy, declares the two greatest countries in the world are America and Russia, because they produce men and materials. Almon A. Lewis, of Indianapolis, killed his divorced wife with a razor and cut his own throat.

BOXING IS PRETTY WOMAN'S PASTIME

MISS HAYS IS NOT AFRAID OF A BRAVY FIST.

DONS THE CLOVES DAILY

Physically She is a Match for Jeffries and Patsy H. Talents to Use—An Indiana Product.

In a New York woman's club at No. 137 West Forty-third street, Miss Catherine Hayes and a garrulous master box at least six rounds every day. When he is absent, Miss Helen Johnson, a 150-pound athlete, is the only pugilist in the club who can last for even three rounds against the club champion.

Miss Hayes has proven herself more than a match for the average male athlete in a five-round bout. She weighs 154 pounds, not one pound of which is surplusage flesh, stands five feet 11 inches in her stockings and has never met any two women who were able to last in a five-round bout. As a girl she attended the Convict of St. John's, at Indianapolis, Ind. There she began to play basketball and before she left the institution she was captain for two years. One day at an athletic carnival which the boys of a nearby school were having, the romping "big boy" saw the boys jump, and he did not reach the ground until he had reached their own grounds than Catherine suggested that they have a similar performance.

She excelled in basketball and soon her records were considered extraordinary. The sisters still marvel at her performances, the results of which are talked on the walls. Within a year she covered the 100 yards in 12 seconds, could jump five feet high and outbox any girl in the institution.

She and her sister exercise every day with the boxing gloves and they attribute their good health to this fact.

Miss Hayes has put her knowledge of the art of boxing to good account. She was returning from Brighton Beach two years ago with her sister. They were the only passengers in the car, and as the conductor entered to

SHE BOXES WITH THE CLEVERNESS OF A TRAINED PUGILIST collect their fare he stepped on her foot. Instead of apologizing he made an insulting remark.

Quick as a flash her fist shot straight for the ruffian's eye, and he was sent sprawling. After that he remained on the platform, silent and motionless, but looking for no more such punishment.

The club's instructor, who weighs 160 pounds, looks like a stripling when sparring with her. Even his clever footwork does not save him at times from the rushes of this woman.

She lacks only one inch of James J. Jeffries' six feet of height. His neck measures 17 1/2 inches; hers 15. Her chest, contracted, measures 32 inches more than Jeffries'; 42 1/2; when normal, an inch and a half more his 42 1/2 inches and when expanded 49 inches. Just an inch more than the champion's. Her waist measures 33 inches, his 35. She weighs 49 pounds more than he does. Her biceps measures 15 inches, one inch less than the Californian's, and her arm 2 1/2 as compared with Jeffries' 20 1/2.

Taking into consideration the fact that she is exceptional active, quick on her feet, strong and a clever boxer, it would probably be impossible to find a woman who is her match.

When asked how she came to take up such strenuous exercise as a pastime Miss Hayes replied: "In school I was always active and my health was good. As I became older I felt the need of exercise. I had often boxed so I took it up. It has benefited me greatly and this was apparent that I have induced various of my women friends to learn how to use the gloves."

On all sides are signs that point to the fact that New York women are beginning to realize the benefits of taking part in sports that were formerly considered as being distinctly within the province of men. Neither basketball nor hockey are now considered one whit too strenuous for the athletic woman.

Lying-Down Dance.
One of the attractions at the Palace theater, London, is a "dance" in which eight girls take part, lying flat on their backs and going through the motions of a dance with their feet.

Peace At Portsmouth

[William Jennings Bryan, In Commemoration.]

"A peace is of the nature of a conquest; for there both parties nobly are subdued, and neither party loser." The demonstrations in the town of Portsmouth when it was announced that terms of peace had been agreed upon, but reflected the sentiments felt throughout civilization. Men are turning from the spirit of war. "As on the sea of Galilee, the Christ is whispering peace," there is growing in the hearts of men the conviction that war must cease; that arbitration must replace force; and the wish is entertained as the hope seems justified—that the time is soon coming when "the angels will sound the trump of God to the whole world forever."

The results of the Portsmouth conference are creditable to all participants. With one of Russia's strongest men, here a large responsibility, and he bore it well. It was his duty to secure for his country the best possible terms, and he secured terms such as few men believed could be obtained. Japan showed great magnanimity in yielding the contested point of honor, and he bore it well. It was his duty to secure for his country the best possible terms, and he secured terms such as few men believed could be obtained. Japan showed great magnanimity in yielding the contested point of honor, and he bore it well. It was his duty to secure for his country the best possible terms, and he secured terms such as few men believed could be obtained.

of the men of all nations, who have learned that peace, rather than war, concord, rather than turmoil, justice, rather than force, provide the substantial foundation for civilization, and make for the real progress and greatness of governments.

We need not expect that the nations will disband their armies at once; we need not expect that all questions will be taken before the court of arbitration, but we have reason to believe that the light of a better day is dawning, and that we are about to enter upon an era in which concession will assert its supremacy over brute force, and the crown of victory be awarded, not to the nation that has the largest army or the strongest navy, but to the nation that sets the best example, and contributes the most to the welfare of the world.

When Elijah was fleeing from the wrath of the wicked Jezebel, and he believed all the prophets to have been slain, the Lord commanded him to stand upon the mountain; and as he stood there, a mighty wind swept by him and rent the rocks asunder, but God was not in the wind; and after the wind came an earthquake; and after the earthquake a fire, but God was not in the fire; and after the fire a still, small voice, and it was the voice of God. And so today, throughout the world, an increasing number, standing upon the heights, are coming to believe that God is not in the ironclads that sweep the ocean with their guns; that God is not in the armies that shake the earth with their tread, or in the fire of modern war, but in the still, small voice of justice that issues from the lips of the just, as it issued at The Hague, or in the spirit that marked the concluding hours of the conference at Portsmouth.

Be Up And Doing.

Haroldus Denkerat: Brother, the world is looking for men who can do something. Do something! That is the keynote. It is all right to have a head chock-full of knowledge; it is all right to be graceful and trim; it is all right to be accomplished. But unless those things enable you to turn out results, they are not what the virile business world of to-day is searching so eagerly after. Dreams do not tunnel mountains; poetic flights do not bridge chasms; promises do not turn the factory wheels. Brain must have brawn with it to win the highest place in this work-a-day world.

The competition to secure high-grade men was never keener in the world's history. No sooner does a man "make good" as a "doer of things" these days than do the employers begin to bid for his services. And they go high, too. It is said that a dozen hired men in this Union receive more than $100,000 per year for their capacity to turn out effective results; that scores are paid as much as $50,000; hundreds as much $25,000, and a host average more than $10,000.

Yes, these are the top-notchers. But they began at the bottom. They did not get such good places through "influence," but by practical demonstrations of their creative forces. It was a long road they traveled, a rough road they traveled, but it was an honest one of earnest toil and endeavor, and more honorable by far than soft dalliance and mediocrity. You might have done the same had you tried. You may do the same if you try. The word is waiting for your effort—earnest to reward it if it be an earnest, honest effort.

Young man, do not delay! Boys, start at once. Not so much matter what you do as how you do it. A Louisville man made a ploy somewhat better than anyone else could do, and he became both rich and famous. Better make good ploys than poor orations. There is more in it for you, and far more for the good of humanity.

Hopkinsville, Ky., June 7, 1901.—Dr. E. W. Hall, St. Louis, Mo.: Dear Sir—I have sold your Texas Wonder. Hall's Great Discovery, for the past three years, and from experience I can say I have never sold any kidney and bladder remedy of superior merit. Most respectfully, THOMAS D. ARMISTEAD.

Lives Saved By Lightning.

A remarkable story is told by the LeSeur, Minn., correspondent for the Chicago Chronicle. This correspondent says: Jacob Varjman, a farmer of Blake Township, in this county, and his wife and three small children were saved from death in a most remarkable manner recently. They were on their way home from town, driving a team of powerful horses, when the animals were frightened by a dog that ran out and barked at them. The horses sprang forward swiftly, and when Mr. Varjman attempted to rein them in, both lines broke, leaving him without any control over the team. The animals realized this at once, and ran at high speed down the road. The bridge is washed out at the Remington farm, and the road fenced off at the first corner this side to make travelers drive around the other way, but the runaway team paid no attention to the barrier. They smashed through the light obstruction and rushed along, headed directly for the rock, thirty-foot gully, that formerly had been spanned by the bridge.

Mr. Varjman attempted to creep out on the tongue of the wagon, and thus to reach the horses' heads, but was prevented from doing so by his wife and the children, who clung to him so closely, in a paroxysm of fear, that he could not free himself from them. The "gully" was only a hundred feet ahead, and the endangered family seemed to have but a few more seconds to live, when help came in a marvelous way. A storm was coming up, and the heavens were shrouded in a black pall of clouds, rent now and again by vivid flashes of lightning, succeeded by deafening peals of thunder, and just as the ragged chasm seemed yawning at their very feet, a glittering lance of electricity shot down from the clouds, and pierced the running horses through and through. They instantly fell dead, their bodies sliding along the road as far as their own momentum and that of the wagon would carry them, and then came to a stop within ten feet of the edge of the ravine. Some persons who were not far away, and who saw the thing on the time, ran at once to give what aid they could. They found the Varjmans all lying senseless in the wagon, but only prostrated by the shock, and all soon fully recovered.

Mr. Varjman's horses were insured against lightning in a St. Paul insurance company, and the company has offered to pay him the loss, which is $250, but he will not accept the money, holding that in so doing he would be showing the rankest ingratitude for the wonderful escape of himself and family.

Starting Mortality.

Statistics show startling mortality from appendicitis and peritonitis. To prevent and cure these awful diseases, there is just one reliable remedy, Dr. King's New Life Pills. M. Flannery, of 14 Custom House Place, Chicago, says: "They have no equal for constipation and Bilelessness." 25 cents at C. J. Haydon's, druggist.

A Great Economic Problem.

National Hardware Bulletin: This nation is face to face with great economic questions, one of the greatest of which is the centralization of capital in commercial and industrial enterprises. Otherwise stated, shall the American nation consist of a few or many individual dealers?

You own a farm of 100 acres. For this farm you have worked hard. You have sacrificed pleasures and comforts during a period of twenty to thirty years. The farm is now yours. It is paid for, clear of all encumbrance. The old mortgage has been lifted.

More than that, you have a comfortable house and well constructed barns and buildings and good neighbors. You expected to make it your home for the remainder of your life. Just when you think that you have everything arranged comfortably a capitalist comes your way. He enjoys that section of the country and has his agent buy up 10,000 acres around you.

Your old neighbors are inveigled into selling out. They must move away. The capitalist who has purchased your neighbors' farms wants you to decline to sell, but he makes it unpleasant for you. Your old neighbors are gone. There is no longer need of the town where you have done your trading.

We submit the question: Which is better for you, a community of farmers under old conditions, or the new condition with yourself and the neighbor (?) of the 10,000-acre farm?

Which is better for your old neighbors?

Which is better for the nation?

One mail-order house in Chicago received in a single day one-fifth of the entire business mail of that city.

When that fact is known, and also that single and individual catalogues house sell annually $25,000,000 to $50,000,000, you can plainly see that the distribution of merchandise is centering rapidly in a few hands.

How long, at this rate, will it be until prices on merchandise will be marked up and marked down just as oil is?

If you patronize mail-order houses you are fostering a monopoly by building up the large catalogue house.

Every order you send away to a mail-order house contributes a share to the success of monopoly.

You are feeding a monopoly! While you do this, local enterprises go hungry for patronage.

The country does not need more 10,000-acre farms.

The country does not need ten monstrous mail-order houses to do all the business.

It does not need 100,000 small merchants.

What is the responsibility of the citizen who helps to develop a monopoly? Is he contributing to the stability and perpetuity of the republic?

A Lost Baby.

An exchange says: The people of Barrett's Ferry, a village in Ohio county, were in a high state of excitement recently over the disappearance from his home of the two-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Coppage. Mrs. Coppage had gone to the pasture to milk the cows and left the child in the yard playing. Upon her return home no trace of the child could be found. A close search was then made for the little one. The neighbors turned out en masse, and over one hundred people engaged in the search. About the hour of midnight a farmer's boy joined in the search who said that early in the night he had heard a child crying in the neighborhood of Rough river. As the frightened and uneasy parents approached the point described, they were relieved by the familiar bark of the little dog which had disappeared with the little child. The overjoyed mother, rushing to the bank of the river, found her child soundly sleeping. The dog also gave evidence of joy in finding the lost child. The mother had changed her place of milking, and the child, being unable to find her, wandered about in an ill-directed search for her until it became tired and went to sleep. The child was over a mile from home when found.

Shooting Affray.

Kentucky Standard: Jamie Allen and Kentie Hinkle, the liverman, engaged in an altercation at the latter's stable last Sunday. It seems that Allen desired to hire a rig, and when it was refused to him he grew angry and made a remark that was resented by a blow from Hinkle. At this Allen drew a pistol and fired twice at Hinkle without effect. Bystanders interfered and the disturbance was quelled. The affair created a good deal of excitement. His trial Monday Allen was held over to Circuit court on a bond of $300, which was readily furnished.

FOR AN ARMISCE

Japanese Commissioner, With a Letter, Sent By Oyama To Lievitch.

Godsadam, Manchuria, Sept. 11.—
At 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon a Japanese commissioner bearing a white flag and escorted by 50 soldiers arrived at a post near the railway and handed to the Russian officers who met to meet him a letter from Field Marshal Oyama to Gen. Lievitch congratulating him on the conclusion of peace and begging him to appoint Russian plenipotentiaries to arrange an armistice. Field Marshal Oyama appointed Gen. Tokuoka as plenipotentiary for his side, the letter announcing and he suggested Chakhdad as the meeting place.
Gen. Tokuoka, Manchuria, Sept. 11.—
Since news was received that peace negotiations at Portsmouth were approaching a conclusion, a press correspondent has made a survey of all the Russian positions from Mongolia to headquarters, the object in part being to ascertain the extent to which the efforts making for peace were viewed by the army. The negotiations received no official recognition in the field
prior to their successful conclusion.
The army keeping in a state of readiness for a battle until the receipt by Gen. Lievitch of a telegram from Emperor Nicholas declaring that the treaty had been signed and that his majesty accepted the conditions arrived at. This telegram was officially published in the army newspaper on September 6 and the outlines of the peace conditions were printed in the same publication Saturday.

Russian Soldiers Celebrated.
The officers thereafter observed military decorum in the strictest sense, but the soldiers, with the consent of the officers, engaged in feasting and other forms of celebration. It will be a week more before the entire army is fully informed of the conclusion of peace, but the news was discounted long ago by the prevailing conviction that since the appointment of the plenipotentiaries peace was a foregone conclusion. It may be said that to the great majority of the officers and men so far informed of the news that the war is at an end is most welcome.

Thousands are daily drinking to the health of President Roosevelt.
The correspondent who is the only remaining foreign newspaperman with the Russian army, was everywhere asked by the men if he was the correspondent of the Russian army. He was everywhere and on being asked in the affirmative, they captured him and tossed him many times in the air after the manner of the Cossacks. The officers jointly protested against the seemingly questionable form of the salutation.
Everywhere along the railway where newspapers could be obtained the soldiers eagerly scanned the news and then expressed their joy by singing songs which they continued to sing the night at intervals cheering for President Roosevelt.

A PET CAT

Bit Through the Tongue of a Little Girl Who Cared for It.

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 9.—While caressing a pet cat Lucille Hudson, the three-year-old daughter of James Hudson, was bitten through the tongue by the animal, which became infuriated during the play. Last Christmas day Lucille was injured by a cat which discharged a revolver in the hands of her grandfather.

ABSCESS

Louis Rogers Browning, Well-Known
Baseball Player, Expires.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 11.—Louis Rogers Browning, better known to the baseball world as "Pete" Browning, died at the city hospital, death resulting from an abscess which formed in his head. Browning was 45 years old and a contemporary of Comiskey, Dan Brothers, Tom Ransome and others.
For several years he led all professional ball players as a batter and his eccentricities made him famous. Over-ever baseball was played. Some months ago Browning was declared insane and removed to an asylum, but the physicians at the institution held that his apparent dementia was the result of the abscess pressing on his brain and he was released.

STRIKERS

Center With Officers of Newport Foundry
Dry To No Avail.

Newport, Ky., Sept. 9.—Picketing
Friday at the Co-Operative Newport foundry, where the molders' helpers are on strike, was more violent than ever. Every one who approaches the plant is scrutinized. Friday the molders' helpers held a conference with President Bauman and Foreman Mercer, but the meeting was without avail.
It was hoped at the conference to reach a compromise. "Wait until Bauman wanted the men to wait until they were paid a few dollars over his wage," said a fence who had a settlement could be reached. This the strikers refused to do. The men demand an increase in wages from $9 to $10 per week.

$2,500 Subscribed.

Harrodsburg Herald: The tobacco growers of Mercer county met Monday and subscribed for $1,100 worth of stock in the Burley Growers' Company, which completes the allotment of $2,500 for this county. They had to raise $250,000 in the thirty-four Burley-growing counties. If the other counties have done as well as Mercer, then the company will be organized at once. It will be known within the next few days whether it is a go or not. If it is not organized you will see that this fall the consolidated agents and emissaries will be coming around and saying that there is an overproduction, and that the wet weather has caused the tobacco to be coarse and fibrous, and that it is not worth as much had it been more seasonable. Judge Hughes, Glover Kyle and Glavin Gaudard are the men who secured enough stock to complete the subscription.

RUSSIAN ENVOYS

Spend Sunday In Washington City.

Washington, Sept. 11.—Mr. Witte and Baron Rosen, the Russian peace plenipotentiaries, accompanied by five members of the former's suite, spent Sunday in Washington. They arrived here at an early hour in the morning and spent the entire day visiting the historic points in and about the city and again later in the afternoon they went for New York, from which place Mr.
Witte will sail for Hamburg. While here they were in charge of Acting Secretary Loomis, of the war department, and Maj. Charles McCawley, of the marine corps, who at the special request of the president acted as their escorts to the various places visited.
Beginning at the white house, the party in turn went to the Russian embassy, the capitol, the congressional library, Mt. Vernon, Arlington and Rock Creek park. As he left for New York, Mr. Witte expressed to Mr.
Loomis his keen appreciation of the pleasure which his brief stay in the capital had given him. It had been, he said, very interesting and very instructive and he had been well repaid for the trip. The etiquette committee of Washington in that it was made up largely of government buildings and private residences, impressed him very much and he frequently expressed his admiration for the beautiful parks. At the white house the party was escorted through the various public portions.

From the congressional library the visitors went to Mt. Vernon, going first to the navy yard, where about noon they boarded the naval tug Sirius. The party was met at Mr. Vernon at 1 o'clock and spent an hour and a half going through the mansion and about the grounds. A feature of the tour was the planting of a fine healthy ash tree on a commanding site on the terrace in front of the mansion overlooking the water. With the former asked the who had planted it and he was told that it was sent to him for transplanting. It was through the courtesy of the ladies of the Mt. Vernon Regatta association that the building was open and Mr.
Witte asked that his thanks be sent to them.

Just before the train left for New York the Italian ambassador, Baron Mayor des Planches, came to the station and held a few moments' conversation with Mr. Witte.
The presence of Mr. Witte and his party in Washington was not generally known though as they rode through the city was recognized by numbers of people. Mr. Witte manifested a great deal of interest in the children that he saw and whenever they alighted from their automobiles
he always shook hands and smiled with persons who were standing about.

KANEKO

The Distinguished Japanese Visited
President Roosevelt.

Oyster Bay, L. I., Sept. 11.—Baron Kaneke, the special commercial envoy of Japan to the United States, spent three hours with President Roosevelt.
Throughout the recent peace negotiations Baron Kaneke maintained the closest relations with the president.
He was a constant visitor to the Japanese government and Baron Kaneke and the president. It can be said that Baron Kaneke trusted him as he trusted no one else. After luncheon the president and Baron Kaneke "rambled through the woods" for over two hours, returning to the president's house in time to reach the village for the 5:02 train to New York.

Incredible Brutality.

It would have been incredible brutality if Chas. Lemberger, of Syracuse, N. Y., had not done the best he could for his suffering son. "My boy," he said, "but I feel that I must try." So I applied Barker's Arnica Salve, which I picked up and saved his life. I used it for burns and ulcers too.

DECIDES

TO MAKE REDUCTION

On Duties On American Goods
Does the Emperor of Russia.

The following story of Admiral Dewey is told by one of the sailors on the Raleigh and printed by the Kansas City Journal: Just before the battle of Manila, when the order was given to for action, the smallest powder boy on the flagship dropped his coat overboard.
He asked permission to jump after it.
But was refused. He went to the side of the ship, dropped overboard, recovered his coat and was promptly arrested for disobedience. Admiral Dewey spoke kindly to the youngster, who broke down and said that the coat contained his mother's picture, which he had just kissed, and he could not bear to see it lost. Dewey's eyes filled with tears.
He fairly embraced the boy and ordered him released, saying: "Boys who lover their mothers enough to risk their lives for their picture can not be kept in iron for this fleet."

A BANK.

Mrs. Alice Rice, the Authoress, Will Start a Bank in Louisville.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 11.—Miss Alice Hegan Rice, author of "Mrs. Wiggs, of the Cabbage Patch," while not altogether forsaking literary pursuits, has made her debut in the commercial world by organizing here a new national bank, with a capital stock of $250,000. Associated with her in the enterprise are her husband, Care
Young Rice, W. O. Head and L. M.
Rice, all of whom are well known in this city. About half of the capital stock has been subscribed. It is understood that Mrs. Rice is the largest stockholder. The expectation is that the details of the organization will be completed this week.

A Remedy Without a Peer.

All find Chamberlain's Stomach

The physician who advises a fellow not to worry and take pep-sin after each meal, then sends him a dun, is a blamed poor philosopher.

A woman out in Kansas is suing her husband for a divorce, half of the corn crop and two-thirds of the pumpkins.

The Campbellville Enquirer, in telling of a pet buzzard which has taken up its abode in Campbellville, says: "He seems perfectly contented, as is the case with everything that comes to our city." Now, this may be true—the pet buzzard may love Campbellville with a surprising fondness, but we would be willing to wager a printing press that it could find much more real enjoyment in a dead dog.

GRANDFATHER.

I have just returned from the grave of my grandfather, Dr. John W. Gore, at Hodgenville, Ky., his death having occurred there last Saturday evening. He was in his eighty-fifth year.

To me, he was a great man—great because he was good, because, since my earliest recollections, he had been kind to me, because he enjoyed my companionship—great to me because he loved me. I can not recall a single time that he spoke harshly to me, or when he reproved me in any other than a gentle manner, nor do I remember a single instance in which I proved disobedient toward him. Thus it was that each of us acquired a true, uninterrupted friendship for the other. And because of these things I have in memory's storehouse many beautiful recollections of him, who waved his hand to the world and went to be with the God he loved.

I remember him during my childhood more as a playmate than as an aged man—as one who obeyed the dictates born of the child-nature, as one who endeavored, even to his utmost, to make the world laugh for me, to bring the roses into my life, to take away the thistles.

I was with him for one week during his illness. His suffering was intense. Gladly would I—so much did I love him—have placed my body into the clutches of his disease to have given him intervals of rest. But when the end drew near the suffering was less, and just before closing his eyes for the eternal repose, his face became bright, and, murmuring, in broken accents, the words of an old song, his soul passed on his tenement of clay as beautifully as a stream of starlight through the evening skies.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Sutherland spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Josh Inman.

Miss Mayme Merritt spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives at Williamsburg.

Mr. Sabe Coulter moved into the house with his father, Mr. J. A. Coulter, Monday.

Mr. Louis Clark and family visited relatives near Williamsburg Saturday and Sunday.

As the singing school has closed and there is nothing to interfere, Sunday school will begin Sunday, and everyone is urged to attend and help all they can.

Mrs. L. S. Dean died at her home on Thursday, the 7th instant, after a lingering illness. She leaves a husband, three children and a brother, besides other relatives and friends, to mourn her sad death. She was forty-six years of age and a member of the Baptist church. She was a good woman and was loved by all who knew her. Her remains were interred in the Rockbridge cemetery Saturday. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved ones.

MT. ZION.

Mrs. Mattie Neale, of Fairfield, spent last week with relatives and friends here.

Mrs. Frank Neale and children, of Chaplin Fork, spent last Saturday with her mother, Mrs. R. A. Russell.

FOR RENT.—A cottage on East Main street, near the Graded School building, after September 1. Six rooms. Water in house. Apply to Dr. J. M. Burton.

If you have anything out of repair, don't forget G. B. Taylor, opposite The Sun office.

Mr. Mike Hanrahan, who has the contract for macadamizing Covington and Virginia avenues, is getting along nicely with his work, and hopes, if the weather continues favorable, to complete the work by December 1.

One of the finest and prettiest vehicles sold here this season was a Moyer runabout recently sold to Mr. Ben. Simms by J. B. Robertson.

On next Sunday morning Rev. W. H. Williams, of the Baptist church, will preach on "Heavenly Recognition."

Luther A. Burns has an advertisement in this issue offering his one-half interest in the butcher business of F. T. Cox & Co. for sale.

I want a Shepherd pup—male. Will give one year's subscription to The Springfield Sun for one.

G. A. BENEDICT.

Mr. U. G. Scroggins has opened a blacksmith shop on the Perryville place, one-half mile from town. He invites his friends to call and see him when in need of work in his line.

Mr. William Wilmott, an aged citizen of Lebanon, died at his home at that place last Wednesday of flux.

If King Corn will only do half as much in price per bushel as he did in yield per acre this season the farmers will have money, as well as corn, to burn.

FOR SALE.—About 6,000 tobacco sticks at $6 per thousand. J. F. Pettus.

Mr. John H. Moore sold two Jersey cows last Monday—one to J. C. Mann for $50 and the other to G. A. Gostley for $55.

Lost.—A "D. K. E." fraternity pin, between Fair Grounds and Springfield. Reward if returned to Sun office.

A game of ball between the Springfield second nine and the Bloomfield second nine at the latter place last Friday resulted in a score of 7 to 4 in favor of Bloomfield. A few errors on the part of Springfield won the game for Bloomfield.

Chairman McChord, of the State Railroad Commission, has called a meeting of the commission for September 20 to investigate the alleged excessive freight rates on some of the roads in Kentucky. In speaking of the matter the Marion Falcon says: The session will be one of the most important the board has held since the adoption of the McChord law, and will go far to set at rest the complaints which have sprung up in various quarters of the State.

The United States crop report for Kentucky says: Tobacco matured rapidly during the week, and much was cut and housed. The late tobacco was helped by rain, but it was detrimental to leaf in the burn. The crop is reported up to the average in most localities, but there is complaint of trouble from worms, unevenness in the size of plants, and some damage from house-burning.

Mr. R. B. Gregor, who lives in the Texas neighborhood, has an old ewe that no one would buy—in fact, was considered worthless—but she "foiled 'em" by producing three fine lambs last spring, which Mr. Gregor sold lately at $4 each.

A game of baseball between Lebanon and Stanford last week resulted in a score of 9 to 8 in favor of Stanford.

The improvements being made in the sidewalks of Springfield will not only improve the appearance of the town, but will be of much help to all of us in our "daily walks."

The last rose of summer will last but a short time longer, and the watermelon will soon "go dry," but with the passing of these very enjoyable things we also lose some of life's aggravations—the flea, the fly, the cockroach, the mosquito, the baseball roter and much excessive perspiration.

Call and see my 41-cent Calicoes and Cottons. P. J. Thomas.

Mr. F. F. Mudd lost a very fine jack coll last week. Mr. Mudd does not know the cause of the animal's death, as it died during the night.

A protracted meeting is being conducted at the Willsburg Christian church by Elders Young and Lowen.

County Clerk Booker has issued marriage licenses to the following since our last issue: Mr. C. R. Hinton and Mrs. Mary Spaulding, Mr. Robert Carrier and Miss Mattie Pirtle.

The series of meetings which have been in progress at the Presbyterian church for the past ten days will close tonight. There have been six additions to the church. Dr. Bachman, the evangelist, is an able speaker, and his sermons have not only strengthened the church, but they have been of much benefit to the town and community.

We are informed by County Clerk Booker, that Judge Selemcan was not aware that snakes are unknown in Michigan at this season, and that he took a supply of "Kentucky Snake Cure." He will, of course, have no use for this, and it is expected that he will deliver it to his friends in Washington county upon his return home.

When putting steel or whalebone into a bodice bend them slightly at the waist before putting into casing. You will find the bodice fit to the figure much better.

When using a sewing machine, the best way to finish off neatly and firmly is to turn the work round and work back again a short way, so that the stitches will be double.

When putting on a collar, make neck of bodice or blouse slightly smaller than base of collar band, and notch bodice here and there while putting collar on. By so doing you avoid wrinkles.

When cutting out sleeves, to avoid the disaster of cutting both for the same arm, fold the material either face to face or back to back. Place pattern on it and cut both together. A proper pair is bound to be the result—New York American.

A BUSINESS FOR SALE!

I desire to sell my one-half interest in the F. T. Cox & Co. butcher business.

I find it necessary to devote my entire time to my farm and for this reason I desire to sell. The business is one of the best in town, and for the amount of capital invested I believe I am safe in saying, it pays more money than any other one business house in Springfield. My reasons for selling are as stated above.

Address me at Springfield Ky.

PUBLIC SALE —OF— Land and Stock. Wednesday, October 4, 1905.

In order to dissolve our partnership business, we will, on the above date, beginning at 9 o'clock, at our farm known as the Cocanougher farm, situated near Fenwick, offer for sale to the highest bidder, the following described land and stock:

LAND

Our farm known as the Cocanougher farm, situated 4 miles west of Mackville, and 7 miles east of Springfield, containing 40 acres. This farm, with the exception of about 15 acres of good timber land, is in a high state of cultivation; all in grass, except 30 acres in corn. The farm has on it a good five-room house, tenement house, stock barn, tobacco barn—which will house 12 acres of tobacco—and all other necessary outbuildings. Farm is one half mile from schoolhouse, and three-fourths of a mile from store and postoffice. Has excellent fruit of all kinds. There is not a better watered farm in Washington county, having on it an everlasting spring and a never-failing well. About 100 acres of this land is extra good tobacco land. Farm is well fenced; in fact, the fence is well improved in every respect. At same time and place, we will also offer for sale another farm two miles west of Mackville, known as the Cal. Shewmaker farm. This farm contains 273 acres and is in good state of cultivation, 30 acres timber land, remainder in grass. This farm has on it a good two-story dwelling, good stock and tobacco barns—tobacco barn will house 8,000 pounds of tobacco. Farm is well watered and will make a desirable home. Good orchard; close to school. About 75 acres strong tobacco land.

STOCK

Six milks, 1 heavy work horse, 2 harness horses, 2 combined mares, 2 brood mares, 4 two-year-old geldings, 2 yearling fillies, 3 suckling colts, 7 milch cows, 5 two-year-old heifers, 1 short two-year-old steer, 5 yearling steers, 4 calves, lot of brood sows.

Farm Implements, Etc.

Two 2-horse wagons, 1 binder, 1 mower, 1 rake, 1 two-horse drill, 2 large plows, 7 double shovels, 2 cultivators, 2 tobacco plows, 1 disc harrow, lot of harness, 35 stacks of hay, about 1,500 bu. corn, 100 bu. Northern seed wheat, lot of seed rice.

TERMS: The land will be sold for one-third cash, and the balance in 1, 2, 3 and 4 years. Bankable notes will be required of purchaser, and interest must be paid annually. On live stock, etc., all sums under $5, cash; over that amount, on a credit of six months with interest. Approved security required before removal of property. Notes payable at People's Deposit Bank, Springfield, Ky., bearing 6 per cent. interest.

TATHAM SPRINGS.

Rev. R. L. Baker, our home missionary of Pike county, preached a very interesting sermon here last Wednesday night.

A number of people from this place attended the basket meeting at Fairview Saturday.

This place was well represented at the fair on Thursday.

Miss Ella Saunders, of Tablow, spent several days last week with Misses Emma and Virna Wells.

Henry Wells was at home a few days last week.

The belt here will close this week. The pump-broke, broken, they are unable to supply the water demand, which necessitates the close.

Mr. Murray Grider and family have returned from a visit to relatives in Louisville.

A young married couple from Tennessee, who were visiting the Springs, came very near being drowned a few weeks ago while boat riding by going over the Sio falls.

Miss Claude and Maudie Royalty spent Sunday with their cousin, Miss Annie Royalty, near here.

A number of Harrodsburg people are camping on the hotel grounds for a few weeks. We hope they will have a pleasant time while in our midst.

Mrs. Mag. Poulter and son were guests of Mrs. M. E. Wells Saturday.

Dr. and Mrs. Hatchett have been called to the bedside of Dr. Hatchett's brother, Rev. George Hatchett, who is very low with typhoid fever.

A company of young people from Duganville and Salva visited the Springs Saturday.

There was no preaching here Sunday. Brother Sommers failing to come on account of the rain.

Miss Ella Sanders has returned home after a few days' visit at Tatham.

Mr. Walter Keeling is visiting friends here.

Makes Soft, Smooth, Velvety Skin.

Removes Pimples, Blisters and Blackheads.

A Kentucky chemist has succeeded in perfecting a preparation for beautifying the complexion that is truly remarkable in its action on ugly skin. The new discovery has already become extremely popular with complexion specialists and thousands of women, owing to its pleasing results and the fact that it is perfectly harmless. Every pore of the skin is a lurking place for dirt and disease germs. If the pores are inactive and fail to perform their duties naturally, the general complexion is a rough, scaly skin, pimples, blackheads and blotches. Ordinary face creams, lotions and so-called beautifiers, as a rule, have a tendency to clog the pores, thereby not only proving injurious, but if used regularly they make the skin flabby and thick. The new preparation is Paracramph, a combination of cooling, soothing, balmy oils, which when applied goes straight to the interior cells, nourishing and oiling the face muscles, stimulating the circulation, removing all germs and imperfections from the pores by inducing a healthy perspiration. The action of Paracramph is peculiar and it has a smooth, velvety effect, because it nourishes and feeds those cells which produce the oils necessary for making a beautiful skin. Don't hesitate; try Paracramph at once. It is guaranteed to be perfectly harmless, and its use will convince you that it is superior to any other preparation you have ever used.

We will send free to any lady upon receipt of a two-cent stamp sufficient Paracramph for a three days' treatment. Write today. The Paracramph Company, Louisville, Ky., U. S. A. Dept. F.

CALL FOR ELECTION.

STATE OF KENTUCKY. WASHINGTON COUNTY, Set. Called term of the Washington County Fiscal Court, July 31st, 1905.

This day came Costly Gattlett and filed a petition, with twenty legal voters of the Hendren Precinct, No. 5, of Washington County, and moved the Court to hold an election at the next regular November election, 1905, to take the vote in said precinct, whether the public highway be allowed to run at large, or the public highways in said precinct, a majority of the justices being present and unanimously voting, allowing said election to be held. It is therefore ordered that the Sheriff and officers of said election will open and have placed on their ballots whether or not stock shall be allowed to run at large on the public highway in said precinct.

Copy. Attest: W. F. BOOKER, Clerk.

In compliance with the above order, given from the Washington County Fiscal Court, I hereby notify the voters of Hendren Precinct, No. 5, of Washington county, that the polls will be open the next regular November election day, 1905, for the purpose of voting in said precinct as to whether or not stock shall run at large on the public highway in said Hendren Precinct No. 5.
